

SIPE Congress 2023

(22-24 June 2023)

Neue öffentliche Aufgaben in Spannungszeiten

New Public Tasks in Times of Tension

Nouvelles missions publiques en période de tension

(Aktualisierung/updated/mise à jour 5. Mai 2023)

22 June 2023

15h 15m – Young Scholars' Workshop: Digitalisation as a new multi-level public task as well as an essential tool for the execution of the new public tasks

Topics:

- Global, European, and National Charters and Declarations on Digital Human Rights and Principles – Is there a Multilevel Constitutionalism on Digital Matters?
- Digitalisation as a New Task for Public Authorities – Next Generation EU and National Recovery and Resilience Plans
- E-Government and Public Policies – Reconstructing or Damaging the Rule of Law?

Participants:

- Pedro Lomba, University of Lisbon
- Eloísa Pérez Conchillo, University of Granada
- Rui Lanceiro, University of Lisbon
- Giulia Re Ferrè, University of Milan
- Miguel Arjona Sánchez, University of Granada

ca. 18h 00m – Speech by Marcelo Rebelo de Sousa, President of the Portuguese Republic

23 June 2023

9h 15m – Reception of the Participants and Welcome Addresses

9h 30m – 1st Session: Defense and International Security: Old-New Public Policies

1. In Russia's Shadow: Towards a Common „Military Safety Area“ within the Multilevel European Constitutional System? Herbert Küpper, Andrásy University of Budapest, Institut für Ostrecht Regensburg
2. Armed Conflict in Ukraine and Refugees: a European or a National Issue? Jaap de Zwann, The Hague University
3. Cyber-Security in Times of War: A New Public Task Paulina Joanna Starski, University of Freiburg

Discussion

11h 15m – Coffee Break

11h 30m – 2nd Session: Health Care as a new public task

1. Globalisation of Health Care Policies. Is Health Care in its Multilevel Dimension (Global, European and National) a New Constitutional Problem?
Luca Mezzetti, University of Bologna
2. The Role of the World Health Organization in the Pandemic Crisis. Globalisation, Harmonisation and Flexibilisation of Administrative Law?
Maria João Estorninho, University of Lisbon

Discussion13h 15m – Lunch at the Faculty*15h 00m – 3rd Session: Climate Change as the New Dimension of the “Environmental Question”

1. Climate Change as the New Form of the “Environmental Question” in Modern Constitutionalism. Is there a Fundamental Right to Avoidance or Minimisation of Climate Change at the Global, European, and National Levels?
Ekaterini Iliadou, Athens Law School
2. Constitutional Justice in Climate Change. The Pioneer Decision of the German Constitutional Court in the Face of the Jurisprudence of Other National and International Court
Rui Guerra da Fonseca, University of Lisbon

Discussion16h 30m – Coffee Break*16h 45 – 4th Session: The transition from fossil energy to sustainable energy as a new green public task

1. Fossil vs. Sustainable Energy: a Global Legal Question. Energy and Multilevel Constitutionalism (National, European, and Global)
Claas-Friedrich Germelmann, Leibniz University of Hanover
2. European Military Conflict in Ukraine and Energy Crisis in Europe: Towards a New Common Energy Policy?
Stefan Storr, University of Graz

Discussion18h 30m – Closing Remarks*20h 00m – Dinner at Restaurante Jockey, Hipódromo do Campo Grande*24 June 2023*9h 45m – General Assembly of the SIPE*11h 00m – Excursion to the Fado Museum and Joint Lunch at the Museum’s Restaurant